

Horizons of action – the fire is still burning

Indigenous cultural rights – artistic, legal, political, and philosophical aspects

The 4th Sami Cultural Policy Summit INTERNAL PROGRAM 22-11-21

Wednesday the 30th of November 2022 at Södra Teatern, Mosebacke torg 1-3, Stockholm, Sweden

08.30 Welcoming ceremony at Stora scenen

Joik by Sara Ajnnak (2 min)

Moderator Per-Jonas Partapuoli (2 min)

Welcoming words by Jerker Bexelius chair Viermie K (2 min)

Inauguration with Amanda Lind Chair of the Committee on Cultural Affairs, Swedish Parliament (3 min)

08.40-09.45 Perspectives by invited indigenous and international experts ONLY DIGITAL TALKS (65 min)

Dale Turner Associate Professor of Political Science and the Centre for Indigenous Studies, University of Toronto, Canada (23 min)

Maria Utsi Sámi cultural worker and -leader from Deatnu/Tana, Norway (19 min)

Dirk Gindt Professor Theatre Studies, Department of Culture and Aesthetics, Stockholm University (19 min)

09.45-10.15 Coffee break with performances in live corner at Kristallen

10.15-11.15 Perspectives on cultural rights - the Swedish example by Sami and domestic experts (60 min)

Brittis Edman Senior advisor at Sweden's National Human Rights Institution (15 min)

Rebecka Forsgren Consultant within national and international laws regarding indigenous rights (15 min)

Karin Thomasson Regional councillor, president of the Swedish National Touring Theatre and spokesperson for the four northern regions in Sweden (15 min)

Tomas Bokstad Senior advisor, Viermie K, presents Five proposals to action (10 min)

11.15-12.00 Panel discussion - strengthening Sami cultural rights (45 min)

With politicians, senior officials, experts and Sami actors in the cultural sector.

First, the eight members in the panel have two minutes each to reflect over the five proposals. Then the moderator will lead the discussion about the proposals one by one.

Karin Thomasson Regional councillor, president of the Swedish National Touring Theatre and spokesperson for the four northern regions in Sweden

Rebecka Forsgren Consultant within national and international laws regarding indigenous rights

Åsa Simma Head of Giron Sámi Teáhter, Sweden. Active in the global indigenous peoples' movements

Amanda Lind Chair of the Committee on Cultural Affairs, Swedish Parliament. Member of the Parliament and spokesperson for national minorities and media issues for the Swedish Green Party

Lotta Brilioth Biörnstad Director of literature and libraries unit at the Swedish Arts Council

Marie B. Hagsgård Expert of Sami and Minority Law. Member of the Swedish Governments Truth Commission for the Sami people

Tomas Colbengtson Sami artist, investigating cultural identity, history and indigenous peoples contemporary situation

Daniel Holst Vinka President of the Sami Parliament Plenary Assembly

Concluding remarks for Summit 2022. Next step with Per-Jonas Partapuoli and Jerker Bexelius (3 min)